The AP chemistry class will have an online assignment through FlinnPrep. Students will need to take notes on the first 10 units of the online course and take the end-of-unit tests. Dr. Turk will provide the codes for online access as soon as they are available.

Students will have a test the first day of class over this material.