Sally Lehmann

We are so happy to have Ms. Lehmann return for her fourth year as Preschool Camp Director. Prior to arriving at Gilmour, she directed a similar preschool summer camp for five years in Charlotte, North Carolina. Lehmann believes that one of the most important ways to ensure a successful preschool camp is to have fun while incorporating structure and routine. Under Mrs. Lehmann’s leadership, your child will explore their natural curiosities and interests while engaging in meaningful hands-on activities as they journey through music, movement, creativity and exploration, and make new friends along the way! As a Gilmore Lower School Instructor, Ms. Lehmann teaches Grade 1 and 2 English arts and social studies.

John Overman
Director of Day Camps
Mr. Overman leads Gilmour’s Day Camp, which reflects its high-energy, team sports and genuine excitement for children. A teacher with 20-years of experience teaches our hands-on arts and fun-filled activities in camp each day and encourages his staff to personalize many camp experiences to the individual. John is an English instructor and the advisor for both the student newspaper and yearbook.

JULY 20-24 Mysteries & Myths

JULY 27-31 Great Escapes
If you could go anywhere and do anything, where would you go? What would you do? What’s your dream? Let’s explore the great escapes that thrill us.

Kids desire a break from the classroom, but not from learning. Camp Gilmour is excited to offer to its day campers summer enrichment in math, reading and writing. Camp Gilmour will provide hands-on activities each morning. The best news? There is no additional cost to families.

Using the weekly themes, our team of certified teachers will lead campers through creative activities to reinforce age-appropriate math, reading and writing. Practice makes perfect!

When registering for day camp, simply select the enrichment option and your camper will have a 45-minute session each day to work on their skills. When the session is complete, campers will continue their day camp experience.

Please note: Only those who have registered for Camp Gilmour Day Camp are eligible for this program.

MIX IT UP!
Campers can combine any half-day specialty or sports camp (morning or afternoon) with Day Camp for a full-day experience. Please note that there is no half-day Day Camp option without registering for another camp.

When registering for the half-day options, please choose the half-day specialty or sports camp first and the option to “make it a full day.”
