4. Glen Oak will provide the bases for girls to develop careers in a variety of fields.

5. Glen Oak puts a strong emphasis on each girl’s learning experience. It will seek to provide an academic program designed to stretch her capabilities in accuracy, thoroughness, and direction in her thinking.

6. Glen Oak through its admissions policy will strive to achieve a student enrollment of social, economic, ethnic, and religious diversity. The Board of Trustees will allocate ten percent of the school’s resources, as they are available, for scholarships to achieve this goal.

“The Education Committee,” Mr. Hauserman continued, “presented this statement of educational policy to the Trustees at their meeting on Feb. 18, 1976. It was approved by the Board without a dissenting vote.”

Treasure or Trivia ‘76

Treasure or Trivia ‘76 is officially on its way with myriads of exciting plans for Saturday, May 1st from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. At that time Glen Oak will open its doors to the community, bringing unusual and interesting activities for all. An individual donation of $7.50 will include appraisals on up to three items, lectures and luncheon, a Market Place and raffle drawing.

This event, which provides an opportunity to have your heirlooms and “favorite things” appraised by experts in the arts, marks the second celebration of Treasure or Trivia. A new idea on the Cleveland scene, it is now an annual Glen Oak benefit.

Well known attending appraisers will be: Mrs. Berenice H. Kent in Art Deco and Art Nouveau; Charles Ambrose, Antique Guns, Weapons and Armor; June Greenwald, Jewelry, Silver and China; David Parkinson, Fabrics, Textiles and Tapestries; Richard Pitschke, Stamps and Coins; Ross Widen, Oriental Art, Oils, Watercolors and Paints.

Guest lecturers this year will be Louise Langelier of Sam Borton Antiques, a delightful speaker and authority on “Porcelain and Period Furniture” and the renowned Mr. John Cooney, Research Curator of Ancient Art, Cleveland Museum of Art, on “Collecting”.

A luncheon with the gourmet touch will be catered by Cleveland’s own Bob Smoots of Saucy Crepe.

In “The Market Place” a treasure trove of fascinating donated objects will be available all day for those who wish to shop and browse.

A raffle is scheduled offering items with such universal appeal as a week at a condominium in Puerto Rico for two and a ten speed bike! The help of all Glen Oak girls and parents will be needed to sell raffle tickets to make this a successful event. [$1.00 per ticket — $5.00 for a book of six].

Treasure or Trivia will be sponsored by the Glen Oak Parents’ Club. They are now in the process of forming committees and invite the participation of all Glen Oak parents. [If you are unable to help with the pre-planning at this time, your help on Saturday, May 1st, the big day, will be most gratefully received.] Anyone interested in helping in any way may call the school or any of the committee chairmen for information.
